THE M'GUIRE STATUE UNVEILED NEXT THURSDAY

Exercises of an impressive character vill mark the unveiling on Thursday ofternoon next of the monument to the memory of Dr. Hunter H. McGuire, the late distinguished surgeon of Richmond. The monument is the gift to the State of a company of friends and admirers of Dr. McGuire, who, acting as the Hunter McGuire Memorial Association, contributed among themselves and raised among outsiders, a fund sufficient for the erection of the statue. The memorial is a handsome bronze monument on granite pedestal, representing Dr. McGuire seated in a chair. The model was prepared by Mr. William Couper, of New York, who is now in the city. The statue is located in the Capitol Square in the avenue leading out of the park into Eleventh Street. It is near that of Stonewall Jackson, on whose staff the famous wall Jackson, on whose staff the famous surgeon served.

The unveiling will occur on Thursday afternoon next at 1 o'clock. The opening prayer will be offered by the Rev. Dr. James Power Smith. Judge George L. Christian, acting on behalf of the association, will present the monument to the State. Governor Montague will receive it. The address of the day will be delivered by Major Holmes Conrad, of Winchester. The monument will be unveiled by Hunter H. McGuire, Jr., a grandson of the surgeon.

The attendance at the unveiling promises to be very large. A temporary platform will be creeted for specially invited quests. The students of the two medical colleges will doubtless attend. The local companies of the Seventieth Regiment will form the military guard.

CRY OF FIRE

Panic of Chicago All But Repeated in Thalia Theatre. in New York,

THE POLICE PREVENTED IT

Clubs and Fists Met Wild Rush and the Leaders Are Forced Back.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.-An immense holiday audience which packed the Thalla Theatre on the Bowery at to-day's mati. nee performance all but repeated the scenes of wild panie of the Chicago thea-tre fire, when a shrill ery of "Fire" ran through the house. Only the chance cir-cumstances that several policemen were starding to the chance.

Clubs and fists met the rush the moment it began, the police and the em-ployes of the theatre rushing through the crowd and literally lifting the lead-ers from their feet and forcing them into their seats.

The attack of the police in front was as sudden as had been the fire alarm.

CLUBS AND THE LAW.

Effect of New Statute is Exciting Much Interest.

Much Interest.

A great many inquiries are being received in this city for copies of the bill recently passed by the General Assembly in relation to social clubs. The bill is now a law and is of interest chiefly on account of the changes in the existing law.

All applicants for charters for social clubs are required to state in their applications whether or not they propose to dispense liquors. If so they must go before the judge of the Circuit Court of a county or the Circuit or Corporation Court of a city, and secure a certificate from such judge that the persons conducting the prospective club are fit and proper persons, and that the place at which it is proposed to locate the club is a fit and proper place.

No club chartered after April 16, 1603, small be permitted to operate in local option districts or in districts where the provisions of the Mann hill apply.

Clubs proposing to dispense liquors shall be required to give a hond of $2,990.

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it to-day, 'Try a delicious and healthful dessert. Pre-pared in two minutes. No boiling! no baking! add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors:—Lemon, Orange, Rasp-berry and Strawberry. Get a package at your grocers to-day, 10 cts.

pensing or liquors by clubs, shall operate to forfelt the charter. Clubs dispensing liquors are made subject to municipal li-liquors are made subject to municipal license taxes at a rate not exceeding that charged by the State.

The effect of the changes in the law are to wipe out mushroom clubs, chartered by the Corporation Commission since April 16, 1993, for the reason that the commission had no alternative, but to grant the applications when they came properly made out and endorsed. Thus no cognizance was had of the fitness of the applicants nor of the place at which the clubs were to be located. Many were chartered in districts where the Mann bill prevented the granting of regular liquor licenses.

Aside from the changes in the law already noted, the statute remains the same.

MR. GLASS AND COL. MARSHALL

No Likelihood of Future Trouble-Letter From Colonel Marshall.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., Jan. 2.—The entire State is interested in the controversy between the Hon. Carter Glass, of Lynchburg, editor of the News, of that city, and congressman from his district, and Captain Richard Coke Marshall, of Portsmouth, Commonwealth's Attorney of Norfolk county, and a prominent gubernatorial possibility. The warm language

Captain Richard Coke Marshall, of Portsmouth, Commowwealth's Attorney of Norfolk county, and a prominent gubernatorial possibility. The warm language which has been used by these gentlemen, which include "liar," "hypocrite" and similar terms, has led to all sorts of rumors as to the intentions of the two distinguished gentlemen with regard to each other.

Apparently there is no possibility of future trouble. Captain Marshall says that if Mr. Glass is satisfied with the situation as it stands, he shall pay no further attention to any publications made by him on the subject, as his letter to him was sufficiently definite as to render further newspaper controversy between them impossible.

His card is as follows:
Portsmouth, Va., January 2, 1901.

To the Public:

My letter to Mr. Glass was so definite as to make further newspaper controversy between us impossible. If Mr. Glass is satisfied with the situation as it stands, I assuredly am, and shall pay no attention to any publications made by him on the subject.

Very respectfully,
R. C. MARSHALL.

Captain Marshall was asked whether or not he had anything to say regarding the editorials of the Hon. Carter Glass, as reproduced in the Norfolk newspapers. The Commonwealth's Attorney replied that he had noticed that both of the Norfolk papers copying the editorial rejoinder of Mr. Glass have omitted to reproduce the editorial which had called forth the letter written by him to Mr. Glass.

This editorial was have omitted to reproduce the editorial which had called forth the letter written by him to Mr. Glass.

This editorial was headed "A Political Cancer." It was republished in the Public Ledger of Norfolk in its issue of December 23th. He had nothing further to say except that he desired to make the announcement printed above.

The editorial reproduced in the Public Ledger, he said, was a bitter personal attack on him and on his career, and merited the caustic reply he made to it. He heid that the one at which he took offense.

A Beautiful Thought.

A Beautiful Thought.

Three small children sat in the moon-Interestant chaldres ast in the moon-light with their mother. The eldest asked what the stars were. The little tot answered promptly "Pshaw, dems Dods cyes," Let us think of them as this intle child did. They're God's eyes shining down on all the world and sceing all we do. Let us remember this and try to let them see many, many good and parfect things, so that they will always smile lovingly down on us.

North Carolina Sentiment. The Winston-Salem Sentinel joyfully remarks:

A glance backwards will reveal that Winston-Ealem made good progress the rast year. It is a bigger, better, busier, wealthier city than ever before. And the outlook is for pushing farther ahead in 1901.

The Wilmington Messenger, which stands on the "old flag and an appropriation" platform, remarks:

We have never taken much stock in gelf, but if champlonship games bring neople by the special car load from Boston, New York and other Northern cities we say let the game proceed. Those fellows from the North had as well spend their money down here as anywhere else, and we do not know where it is more needed.

told, there has been a sort of unconscious imbibling of impressions about factories, factory people, and factory owners which is unjust, unfair and is really without foundation, in fact. What is the origin of these impressions? It is not a very "soft impeachment" to make, it is certainly not a popular thing to say, and yet the cold truth is, these impressions came from two sources: The "walking delegate" and the demagogue in politics. in politics.

The Charlotte Chronicle is only slightly hopeful. It says:

Whatever policy may be agreed upon at the McClellan dinner, is sure to be met with an opposition policy as the esuat of the Bryan-Hearst dinner, and the factional fight will be on. tBut it is yet a long time until the national convention will meet, and those, who are hoping for the defeat of Roosayelf must also hope that the Democrats will have had their fight out in the meantime and for once go into the convention as a united and harmonious body. hopeful. It says:

The Charlotte Observer of New Years Day, remarks: It is noted that other things heside the old year went last midnight—for instance, a good many North Carolina rum mills.
